¹⁾ Indices are derived from figures not rounded off

²⁾ Revised

³⁾ Preliminary

⁴⁾ Starting with 2003, administrative data sources (the Czech Social Security Administration) are used for quarterly data to acquire information on activity and size of businesses; data for the corresponding period of preceding year have been adjusted to a comparable methodology; As the school establishments obtained juridical subjectivity (the so-called regional education), we moved from the acquisition of data from administrative sources to direct measurement; the same period of the previous year was rebased to be comparable; Preliminary
