Central Statistical Library – invitation

The book collection of the Central Statistical Library (in the main CZSO building in Prague 10, Skalka, Czech Republic) has been built for more than 200 years.

It is the only professional statistical library in the Czech Republic. It offers a wide selection of current statistical literature, statistical periodicals (from the Czech Republic and abroad), unique historical statistical publications, yearbooks, maps or lexicons of municipalities, and also sale of statistical publications and periodicals.

Users can find all information about our publications in the online catalog.
